ANNOUNCING
DOG DAYS DOG SHOW IN CARBONDALE, COLORADO
AUGUST, 2006
SPONSORED BY KATHLEEN EWING GALLERY

In cooperation with the Carbondale Council on Arts & Humanities, and Main Street Gallery, and to benefit the Colorado Animal Rescue of Glenwood Springs, Colorado, the Kathleen Ewing Gallery will jury and curate a special summer exhibition, DOG DAYS DOG SHOW.

Opening on August 4th to coincide with "First Friday" and on view to August 30th at the Carbondale Council [CCAH] gallery on Main Street, will be a juried exhibition of paintings, drawings, sculpture and photography by artists of the Roaring Fork and Crystal River Valleys. The exhibition is devoted to "Man's Best Friend," and images will convey the essence of a dog's world. The deadline for submissions is July 15, 2006. Information on submissions can be obtained by contacting CCAH (970-963-1680) or the Kathleen Ewing Gallery.

Also on view August 4 to August 19 at the Main Street Gallery in Carbondale, CO, will be the exhibition, A Survey of the Dog In Photography: 19th, early 20th Century & Contemporary Photographs. Included in this exhibition will be unique 19th and early 20th century images as well as established contemporary photographers, such as William Wegman, Elliott Erwitt, Keith Carter, Grace Robertson, Pentti Sammallahti and many others.

Proceeds from these exhibitions will benefit the Colorado Animal Rescue, Inc., [coloradoanimalrescue.org] of Glenwood Springs, Colorado. With a shelter built in 2000, Colorado Animal Rescue provides adoptions for thousands of abandoned animals annually.

Kathleen Ewing has had a long interest in animal welfare and serves on the Board of Directors at the Washington Animal Rescue League [WARL.org] in Washington, DC. Her Washington gallery serves as a satellite adoption location for WARL on Saturdays. She recently established a studio, open by appointment, in Carbondale, CO, featuring artists from her gallery's inventory.
